The beauty of the Windward side attracted Ken to set his roots in the 48th District of Kaneohe. He has raised his family here, alongside many family members and friends, over 35 years.

Ken has seen Kane'ohe change from a quiet rural community to a busy urban area. He shares our concerns about the economy, the future of our children, and the quality of our lives.

People recognize Ken as someone with strong principles, a high degree of professional ethics and integrity, and the ability to get things done.

As your full time legislator, Ken has always made himself accessible and is always
